MEET MARIO MARRAZZO

As the son of Italian immigrants, Mario grew up with a deep appreciation for the rich culinary traditions of his heritage, and our bistro is an expression of that love. Growing up in Orchard Park NY, Mario was surrounded by many cultural influences. With a melting pot of different food styles, his family's tradition, bar scenes, Mario's interest in food and hospitality only grew once he left for New York City after college. There he developed a unique cultural standard for his food. With a need for change that came in 2020, Mario found himself back in Western New York with a hunger to bring the quality, and taste that he had come accustomed to while away, and a nostalgia for a cultural tradition. With an expectation, and anticipation to show off his new ideas, Mario decided to set up roots after finding his way back to his hometown.

There's no reason not to eat at Mario's

We take pride in being a 93% true scratch kitchen.
